WELCOME TO THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

A photograph of two men in white clerical robes shaking hands in a church. The man on the left is older, with glasses and a microphone, wearing a white alb. The man on the right is younger, wearing sunglasses and a white alb with a yellow and black sash. They are standing in front of a wooden altar with a cross and candles. The background is a wood-paneled wall with a stained glass window and a lectern.

ECCLESIASTES 3:1-8

For everything there is a season and a time for every matter under heaven:
a time to be born and a time to die;
a time to plant and a time to pluck up what is planted;
a time to kill and a time to heal;
a time to break down and a time to build up;
a time to weep and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn and a time to dance;
a time to throw away stones and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek and a time to lose;
a time to keep and a time to throw away;
a time to tear and a time to sew;
a time to keep silent and a time to speak;
a time to love and a time to hate;
a time for war and a time for peace.

Life is full of different seasons - everything changes. We may all be living in similar circumstances, but we all find ourselves responding in different ways. Be mindful of the rhythms of life. Each moment has its purpose; embrace the present and understand that change is a fundamental part of existence. There is wisdom in recognizing when to act and when to be still.
